

Methodist Women in Britain 10 2011-2021

For women, for justice, for Christ

Newsletter Spring 2021

A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Dear Readers,

We celebrate the tenth anniversary of Methodist Women in Britain this year. Some of our plans to mark this milestone will be affected by the ongoing restrictions related to the pandemic. Nevertheless we will celebrate in the best ways that we can and give thanks not just for MWiB, but also for the work of so many women in Methodism over the previous generations. We have always endeavoured to support our sisters, and fight against injustice, and that has not changed. Nor has our motivation to do all that we can, following the example of Jesus Christ.

The past year has not followed the expected pathways for our work. It has, however, opened other possibilities, enabling the work to continue. We have learned new – sometimes scary – skills, and made new links in unexpected places. Technology has opened fresh doors and begun to help us reach people who were unaware of our existence previously, as well as enabling continued liaison with partners.

Our last two Forum meetings have been held via Zoom. One of our reps has been able to join us on both occasions from Ghana, as she was visiting family early last year and has been unable to return to the UK to date. Our annual conference will be held online for the first time this year with our keynote speaker joining us from Albania. I have had conversations with people right across the country and abroad which is amazing, and outweighs the negative aspects of technology. We seek to use it in positive ways.

Right from the start of lockdown last year I have been concerned for those who cannot access social media, and who are particularly isolated, but I have been so heartened to hear about the women joining meetings via their phones, or asking grandchildren to set them up for online meetings.

We have been forced to adapt our patterns and practices and to review and rethink. We need to be alert to changes and do our very best to be relevant to society's needs. There are implications here for us as we look forward to the next decade. I believe our core principles will remain just as relevant as before: the challenges of education and equality will be with us for some time to come; issues such as early child marriage, FGM and gender based violence will take much more work to reduce and one day eradicate; the changes in our climate will continue to affect everyone around the world; too little water; too much water; severe storms and virus mutations are likely to increase, driving further migration and displacement. We must face the challenges ahead with determination to do all that we can to care for everything that lives on our incredible planet.

Look out for information about tenth anniversary happenings. You may like to take a look at our range of merchandise as there are some new items, for example candles for the anniversary. See our website: www.mwib.org.uk or contact us by email: resources@mwib.org.uk

I pray that you will hold on to the hope that we find through our faith. It can strengthen us and comfort us each day. Let's face a positive future together in that knowledge.

With my good wishes,

Hilary

Together, with Hope on the Way

Annual 'Swanwick' Conference

Saturday 17th and Sunday 18th April 2021

Following the huge disappointment of having to cancel the weekend at Swanwick in 2020, we have been determined to offer something in 2021, but sadly, we have made the decision not to meet face to face at The Hayes because of the ongoing uncertainties of life with COVID-19, and the need to keep everyone as safe as possible.

However, we are delighted to be able to invite you to 'Together, with Hope on the Way', an online conference taking place on Saturday 17th and Sunday 18th April 2021. It will be different to our previous events, but is an exciting new venture, be accessible to a wider audience.

Our keynote speaker Sister Imelda Poole will be joining us 'virtually' from Albania, to talk about her work educating and training young people to help prevent them becoming trafficked. Imelda is a Sister of the Mary Ward Loreto Foundation, Chair of 'Renate', and an international speaker on human trafficking.

Building on the work of previous generations of Methodist women, MWiB continues to support those in need, especially women and children, and to tackle issues of injustice including human trafficking. We hope you will join us for this year's conference.

2021 also marks the tenth anniversary of MWiB. Following on from the Conference itself we hope you will also join us for a time of celebration on the afternoon of Sunday 18th April (see page 5 for more details).

REGISTRATION AND COST

Registration is now open. We are asking that all participants consider making a donation towards the cost of bringing you this online conference, and suggest an amount of £10 per person.

You will find links for registration and donation on the MWiB website: www.mwib.org.uk

A programme for the weekend, joining details, and other information will be sent out a few days before the conference to all those who have registered.

Your prayers for this conference will be greatly appreciated, and we look forward to you joining us in April.

Meet a Mission Partner

Our Woman in Waiting

Being a “woman in waiting”: does that make me handmaiden to a King/Queen? May I commence by confirming that I acknowledge Jesus as Lord, Saviour and King. It seems to me that whenever we accept that it is He who rules our lives then our plans and presumptions have to be set aside. Furthermore, when one's plans are made amidst a pandemic, disruption is inevitable.

I'm a mission partner who has completed her formal training and been commissioned but I must wait until certain other of the pre-requisites for my taking up of my overseas appointment can be fulfilled. Meantime, alongside colleagues who are also preparing to go overseas, I remain in waiting at Wesley House.

I am waiting for:

- ~ Covid vaccination—because it has been determined that we should not travel overseas until we are fully vaccinated.
- ~ A medical. (This has been postponed thrice, owing to the closure of the clinic.)
- ~ The granting of a Work Permit. The country to which I'm appointed has instigated a new taxation and immigration policy that requires that my would-be employers submit a Tax Compliance Certificate that is not yet available to them.

Provided that the above three are satisfactorily resolved or fulfilled, I await special permission to travel from the Methodist Council (since all travel charges to the budget are currently embargoed).

Please pray that I will learn patience and that, whilst I wait, the will of God be done.

RESOURCING AND ENABLING WOMEN AROUND THE WORLD

Every year, MWiB donates £10,000 in Empowerment Gifts to overseas projects whose primary focus is to empower women and girls by providing education and training opportunities, staffing costs, resources and materials. We've recently received photos and news from three of the projects we supported in 2019/2020.

Sri Lanka

In Minuwangodo, Sri Lanka, many of the women are of low caste. They carry the 'Dalit' label with them throughout their lives, facing discrimination in many areas of their lives, not least in finding employment to support themselves and their families. An MWiB Empowerment Gift of £1,500 has enabled the Methodist Church, with the help of the local superintendent minister Revd Nadeera Fernando, to set up an interest-free loan system to enable these women to set up a successful pottery business. With the additional purchase of a clay mixing machine, the women are now able to work from their homes making traditional pots, giving them an income to provide for their families.

Another gift of £1,500 went to the Shalom Project for Peace in Kilinochchi, in the northern part of the country. The project provides chickens to women affected by the long civil war, the eggs from which provide not only a source of nutrition for the family but also a means of income by selling in the local market, enabling them to become self-sufficient.

Quick Impact Women's Project, Liberia

Class of 2020: the first graduates of the Quick Impact Project, Liberia

At the West Africa Area Seminar of the World Federation, many women expressed a need for skills training and a desire for spiritual growth development amongst the women in their churches and communities. Muriel Nelson, President of United Methodist Women in Liberia submitted an application, and the Quick Impact Women's Project received an Empowerment Gift of £1,500. Despite the pandemic, 22 women from three districts were trained in the production of body care product (soap and perfume), and household sanitation products (bleach, air freshener, and disinfectant).

The women also received business management training, and with the help of local Village Savings and Loan Associations they were able to set up their own small businesses, enabling them to support themselves and their families, and to overcome the need to depend on men for their survival. They were also able to come together for bible study and fellowship, and to build a network of support in their churches and communities.

EASTER OFFERING 2021

Into all the world

The 2021 Easter Offering theme 'Into all the world' has been carried over from last year's cancelled event in a service that features people who have made a journey, some in obedience to God's call on their lives, and others because they had no choice. The worship encourages us to reflect and learn from those who travel, and to consider our own journeys – both physical and spiritual.

A series of Lent Reflections on the theme is available to accompany the Easter Offering.

Go to www.mwib.org.uk/creativespirituality to order or download Easter Offering resources, and to download the Lent Reflections.

Please note—if you already have printed materials from last year, we ask that you simply change the date and use them, rather than waste the paper. Thank you!

We will hopefully be able to gather together properly this spring to celebrate God's mission activity and to support the work and mission of our 65 partner churches around the world.

*NEW online video service *

We are producing a simple video recording of the service, which will be available soon—ideal for individuals or groups unable to meet. Look out for further information!

In 2020, MWiB Empowerment Gifts also enabled skills training projects in Ghana and Tamil Nadu, India; provided equipment for a safe-house in Zambia for women and girls fleeing domestic violence or threatened with FGM or forced marriage; supported the Karibuni Feeding Programme in Kenya, struggling to feed orphaned children in the midst of the pandemic; bought a medical scanner for the maternity ward of a hospital in Kenya; and provided training and resources for women and girls with hearing impairment in the Nusirat refugee camp in Gaza, Palestine [pictured right].

These relatively small gifts enable big changes to people's lives:

"It will go a long way in the development of the work we have planned."

"This will make a huge difference to many women and their families."

"Gifts such as this from MWiB make a huge impact and go a long way here."

"It will enable us to reach a good number of women with this training programme."

Are you aware of a project overseas that would appreciate an Empowerment Gift? Criteria and information forms are available to download from the 'Resourcing and Enabling' page of the MWiB website (www.mwib.org.uk), or by email from: admin@mwib.org.uk The deadline for this year's Empowerment Gift applications is 31st July 2021.

Tenth Anniversary Celebrations

Of course, some of our plans have been postponed or changed due to COVID-19, but we hope you'll be able to join us as we celebrate over the next few months.

Note the following dates and events*, and join us during our special year:

Together... A time of celebration

Sunday 18th April, online

On the Sunday afternoon following our online conference (see page 2 for details), we will be sharing in an online time of celebration together, with worship (including two new hymns written for the occasion), a fun quiz, and more. Go to the conference information on www.mwib.org.uk, follow the link to register, make a donation if you wish, then—get your glad rags and your party hat on, bring your own cake and candle, and join us for the occasion!
